Product Description

ABENA Hand Soap is a safe choice and the ideal solution for daily hand washing - not least for people with delicate and sensitive skin. The soap's pH value is adjusted to suit the skin's own pH, and it contains no color or perfume. This means that the soap can be used widely and as often as necessary, as it does not dry out the skin. ABENA's Hand Soap is gentle on your skin, but effective against impurities and bacteria.
